

CITY INTELLIGENCE. DOWN THE RIVER.

The Improvement of the Navigation of the Delaware. All that has been said of the ice-barrier of the Delaware at the "Horse Shoe" is now being verified every hour of the day.

Our commercial associations have earnestly urged Congress to do something to relieve Philadelphia from this annual embargo upon her commerce.

OUR COMMERCE.

The Official Report for the Fiscal Year 1870-71. In the official report of the Bureau of Statistics of the Treasury Department, we find the following statement of the foreign imports of merchandise imported for consumption into the port of Philadelphia during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1870:

Table with columns: Description, Value, Dutiable, Free of duty, Total. Rows include various goods like sugar, coffee, and other commodities.

A summary of the above presents the following: Dutiable—Warehouse, $7,759,329; Direct, $1,811,669. Total, $9,570,998.

The figures for the port of New York during the same period present an aggregate of $202,016,811. This startling contrast is a standing argument in favor of pushing forward with the utmost rapidity the new steamship project.

COMMERCIAL EXCHANGE.

Its Annual Meeting To-morrow. To-morrow evening the Commercial Exchange Association will hold its annual meeting at its new hall, in Second street, above Walnut.

The Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad. The annual report of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad Company for the past year has just been presented.

Another Incendiary Attempt. Last night another attempt was made to fire the schoolhouse on Seventh street below Catharine. A fire was kindled in one of the apartments.

The Chesnut Street Skating Rink. At Twenty-third and Chesnut streets, is now in full operation a skating rink. The ice is in splendid condition, and skaters can enjoy themselves without impediment.

Robbing Servant Girls. A man named K. W. Piltzsch was arrested at Eighth and Vine streets on Saturday upon the charge of robbing poor German servant girls.

A Swindler. A man named Charles Smith was taken into custody on Saturday, upon the charge of swindling. The allegation is that he was acting as a representative to people that their relatives in a distant city were in distress.

Suspected of Robbery. John Ware and William Kennedy were arrested at Second and Spruce streets yesterday, upon suspicion of the larceny of a quantity of rope which they had in their possession.

The money market opened quiet and steady, notwithstanding the excitement resulting from the political news from France.

LIGHT AT LAST.

Who stole the goods?—Seven thieves in custody—A Dangerous Amour the Number. Some time on Saturday—the exact particulars as to time remain yet involved in mystery—the house No. 1038 North Eleventh street was entered and robbed of goods to the amount of $300 in value.

The prisoners having been locked up, the Sergeant and his assistants, accompanied by Miss K. Moreste, a careful scrutiny of the then tenanted dwelling discovered in the kitchen one burglar's brace, one bit, and two jimmies that had apparently been good service.

Miss Moreste has the reputation of being also a shop-lifter; for when she was arrested on Saturday night, she was charged into a yard by an officer, when it was discovered that she had thrown away a roll of black cloth, and also a capacious "lift" pocket, big enough, as the officer said, "to hold three bushels of potatoes."

Philadelphia Trade Report. Monday, Jan. 30.—Bark—in the absence of sales we quote No. 1 Querciton at $30 per ton. Second quality Querciton at $28 per ton.

REMARKABLE OCCURRENCE.—On Friday afternoon a horse attached to a sleigh took fright on North Broad street and dashed madly off, running down Broad street to Thompson and along Thompson east. At Ninth and Thompson streets a train on the Philadelphia, Germantown and Norristown Railroad was passing, and the horse in attempting to cross the track jumped on the cow-catcher of the locomotive and was carried some yards before he was killed.

PHILADELPHIA CATTLE MARKET. Monday, Jan. 30.—The market for Beef Cattle was again excessively dull to-day, the demand being light, and prices were heavy and irregular.

THE ENGLISH SPARROWS.—There having been a good deal of anxiety expressed last night by the little strangers among us, the English sparrows, should rather to death this snowy weather, we take pleasure in calling attention to the fact that they have been taken in charge by the Women's Branch of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY CASE.—Two men, named James Walker and Thomas Fleming, went into the beer saloon at Thompson and Mather streets yesterday, and without any provocation assaulted the proprietor, who was also damaged the furniture in the place. The police were notified and the disorderly characters were taken into custody.

THE PHILADELPHIA AND BALTIMORE CENTRAL RAILROAD. The annual report of this company for the year ending October 31, 1870, has just been presented. The business of the year shows a fair increase over the year preceding.

THIRD EDITION MATTERS AT WASHINGTON.

Repealing the Income Tax. A Constitutional Difficulty. The Regulation of Commerce. The Fenian Exiles. A Resolution of Sympathy. Proceedings of Congress.

FROM WASHINGTON. A Job Spotted. WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The Appropriation Committee, which has been investigating the House resolution passed last session to pay half a million of dollars to the Fenian Exiles, has decided to report that the money should not be paid, and that the joint resolution be repealed.

Repeal the Income Tax. It is believed that the action of the House will have the effect of defeating the measure. The Ways and Means Committee decided to-day not to take any action on the income tax until the Senate has disposed of the question.

Regulation of Commerce. The House Judiciary Committee have before them a bill for regulating commerce between the several States, and authorizing the President to maintain that Congress has the right, on general question of regulating commerce between States, to charter railroads and regulate transportation of passengers and merchandise.

Sympathy with the Fenians. General Butler will to-day introduce a resolution expressing sympathy with the Fenian Exiles who have recently arrived in this country. The President's Household. Considerable amusement was created in the House by the introduction of a resolution inquiring why the President retained a number of military gentlemen at the White House, and how private secretaries the President has.
